

Candidate Information

Position:	Research Fellow
School/Department:	Queen's Management School
Reference:	22/110413
Closing Date:	Monday 19 December 2022
Salary:	£35,333 per annum
Anticipated Interview Date:	Monday 23 January 2023
Duration:	24 months starting 1 February 2023 (or as soon as possible thereafter).

JOB PURPOSE:

To be an active member of the Queen's University Centre for Economic History and the Centre for Economics, Policy and History both headed up by Dr. Chris Colvin and Professor John Turner. To be active in the delivery of their own research programme and assist the Centre directors in the outreach activities of the Centre.

MAJOR DUTIES:

1. Undertake their own research project for the duration of the project under the direction of the two directors.
2. Present regular progress reports on research to members of the research group or to external audiences to disseminate and publicise research findings.
3. Prepare material for publication in international journals and presentations at international conferences.
4. Carry out the outreach activities of the Centre and routine administrative duties as requested, e.g., arranging research group meetings.

ESSENTIAL CRITERIA:

1. Hold or be about to obtain a relevant PhD in an economic history topic.
2. At least 3 years relevant research experience.
3. Experience of publishing, or ability to publish, in top international journals.
4. Ability to contribute to outreach activities and administrative processes.
5. Ability to communicate complex information clearly write in a clear manner.
6. Ability to translate research into policy recommendations.
7. Ability to build contacts and participate in internal and external networks.
8. Demonstrable intellectual ability.
9. Ability to assess and organise resources.
10. Willingness to travel to Trinity College Dublin.

DESIRABLE CRITERIA:

1. Previous research experience in one of the three themes of CEPH: Institutions of growth and cooperation; Development and wellbeing in comparative perspective; and Borders and location of economic activity.