

Candidate Information

Position: Lecturer in the Law of Evidence
School/Department: School of Law
Reference: 24/111868
Closing Date: Monday 3 June 2024
Salary: £41,331 - £57,141 per annum
Anticipated Interview Date: Thursday 27 June 2024

JOB PURPOSE:

To undertake research which complement the research strategy of the School of Law. To teach at undergraduate and postgraduate level on Evidence.

To teach at postgraduate level and supervise at doctoral level as required. To contribute to School's administration/outreach activity as required by the Head of School.

MAJOR DUTIES:

Teaching:

1. Deliver teaching and assessment activities and setting/marking coursework to undergraduate students on law modules within the School including in particular Evidence.
2. Deliver postgraduate teaching on the School's postgraduate programmes.
3. Select appropriate assessment instruments and criteria, assess the work and progress of students by reference to the criteria and provide constructive feedback to students.
4. Seek ways of improving performance by reflecting on teaching design and delivery and obtaining and analysing feedback.
5. Supervise research students as directed by the Head of School.
6. Plan and develop independent teaching contributions and sustainably contribute to the design or revision of modules as required by the School's strategic objectives.
7. Help to develop appropriate teaching approaches and contribute to curriculum development.
8. Be responsible for the record-keeping associated with teaching and the preparation of teaching materials.

Research:

1. Evidence the capacity to produce high quality publications of international standing.
2. Evidence the ability to be actively involved in research, innovation and impact at a national and international level as well as contributing to activity within the School of Law.
3. Demonstrate the ability to, and, where appropriate, source and secure external funding, in collaboration with others, from the relevant funding bodies to ensure continued growth of the School's research profile.
4. Demonstrate the ability to work/collaborate on original research with colleagues in other institutions.

Administration/Contribution to the Community:

1. Participate in School, Faculty and University administration as requested by Head of School.
2. Provide pastoral care for students to ensure that all issues are dealt with in a timely, sympathetic and effective manner; provide supportive and constructive feedback on assessment; act as personal tutor; direct students to specialist support where appropriate.
3. Exercise excellent inter-personal skills and the ability to work as a member team.
4. Promote and contribute to collegiality within the School.

ESSENTIAL CRITERIA:

1. A degree in Law (2.1 or above).
2. Hold or be about to obtain a PhD in Law or cognate discipline.

3. A publication record commensurate with stage of career, demonstrating ability to publish at internationally-excellent level in peer reviewed journals and/or with relevant publishers, with clear potential to make a strong contribution to the School's performance in REF.
4. Research interests that are sustainable and which complement the research strategy of the School of Law.
5. Demonstrate an awareness of appropriate external research income opportunities to support research.
6. Demonstrate an awareness of how to engage external stakeholders with research and significance of impact agenda.
7. Relevant teaching experience in a law school context, commensurate with stage in career.
8. Ability to contribute to the teaching of the law of Evidence.
9. Demonstrable ability to deliver excellent teaching and a commitment to the student experience.
10. Demonstrable ability to offer teaching in subjects at postgraduate level.
11. Ability to contribute to broader management and administrative processes, commensurate with stage of career.
12. Demonstrate collegiality and commitment to contribute to the School community.
13. High level of analytical capability.
14. Evidence of engagement in continuous professional development.
15. Demonstrable ability to assess and organise resources.
16. Ability to strengthen the School's national and international research networks.
17. Must demonstrate evidence of ability to communicate clearly and effectively to students, academic colleagues and to professional bodies and managers.
18. Evidence of good interpersonal skills and the ability to work both independently and as part of a team.
19. Commitment to the values of equality, diversity and inclusion.

DESIRABLE CRITERIA:

1. PGCHET (or equivalent) with HEA membership.
2. Evidence of successfully attracting external research income.
3. Ability to contribute to teaching and curriculum development in Criminology and/or Criminal Law and/or Sentencing.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Informal enquiries may be directed to Professor Gordon Anthony at g.anthony@qub.ac.uk.