JOB PURPOSE:

To deliver the key activities and targets to support the Global Student Recruitment (GSR) targets for Queen's University, promoting Queen's and its courses to prospective Domestic Undergraduate and Postgraduate students, primarily in NI and ROI, but including GB if required, throughout the entire recruitment cycle from expression of interest to application and through to conversion and enrolment.

MAJOR DUTIES:

1. Assisting the Domestic Student Recruitment Manager and Head of GSR to deliver a go-to-market strategy to recruit high quality students for undergraduate and postgraduate study in line with University approved recruitment targets.
2. Work with the Domestic Student Recruitment Manager and Events Officer to manage a calendar of recruitment events and activities across the domestic markets designed to attract and recruit prospective students to Queen's.
3. Work in partnership with the Faculty Student Recruitment Hubs (FSRH) and other relevant stakeholders to ensure that recruitment activity is not duplicated and that there is maximum use of the total available resource to cover the market.
4. Represent the University at various recruitment fairs and school-based events, promoting Queen's and its undergraduate and postgraduate courses.
5. Deliver effective presentations on behalf of GSR, using a variety of methods and reviewing the relevance and impact of all materials in relation to the audience being addressed.
6. Effectively use CRM as a core tool of undergraduate and postgraduate recruitment, maximising its potential and ensuring that all leads are gathered, recorded and managed appropriately.
7. Work collaboratively with the Global Marketing and Insights Manager and the Recruitment Events Officer in the development of marketing campaigns and a suite of market attuned marketing materials which can be used to support undergraduate and postgraduate recruitment in the various activities which are scheduled across the year.
8. Assist in the recruitment and training of Student Ambassadors to augment the activity of the domestic undergraduate recruitment team, ensuring that they are always briefed and understand relevant legislation such as CMA/Health and Safety/GDPR.
9. Gather, monitor, analyse and disseminate recruitment and admissions-related data and marketing and competitor information to support the achievement of Queen's undergraduate and postgraduate recruitment targets.
10. Contribute to the broader work of the GSR team. Inputting to the development of campus tours and assisting when required with marketing campaigns and/or specific events such as Open Days/Offer Holder Events/Experience Queen's.
11. Prepare material for the Domestic Student Recruitment Manager/Head of GSR to use in papers for University Committees and corporate reports within the agreed deadlines and to the highest standards of written English. With all claims evidenced with relevant data.
12. Provide feedback and recommendations to Domestic Student Recruitment Manager/Head of GSR on necessary developments and improvements to the current Queen's propositions for undergraduate and postgraduate students.
13. Contribute positively to the development of a professional recruitment team which clearly demonstrates the Professional Standards which have been agreed and are laid out in the Staff Appraisal Document.
14. Undertake other duties and responsibilities as required by Domestic Student Recruitment Manager or the Head of GSR.

ESSENTIAL CRITERIA:

1. A degree (or equivalent qualification) in any subject plus significant relevant experience in a target focused sales or business development role, working in education sector or service-oriented industry.
2. Candidates without this qualification but demonstrate substantial relevant experience in a target focused sales or business development role, working in the education sector or service-oriented industry at appropriate level as outlined below will also be considered.
